Package 'just.install'

October 13, 2022

Title Very Simple Function to Install Packages without Attaching

Version 1.0.2

Description
  Install packages without attaching them. If a package it is already installed, it will be skipped.

License GPL (>= 3)

Encoding UTF-8

RoxygenNote 7.1.2

Imports remotes, dplyr, utils

Suggests knitr, box, rmarkdown, tibble

VignetteBuilder knitr

NeedsCompilation no

Author Carlos Yanez Santibanez [aut, cre]

Maintainer Carlos Yanez Santibanez <carlos.yanez.s@gmail.com>

Repository CRAN

Date/Publication 2022-01-28 21:00:08 UTC

R topics documented:

---

install_package   internal function to that installs a single package based on data provided

Description

  internal function to that installs a single package based on data provided

1

Usage

```
install_package(package_name, source_type, source_param)
```

Arguments

package_name	package name
source_type	where it should be installed from source_param	repository source, where it applies

Value

no output

---

justinstall	simply install packages

Description

Simple utility to install packages from a number of sources. It only install if it not present already. It does not attach any packages, existing or to be installed.

Usage

```
justinstall(to_install)
```

Arguments

to_install	tibble or data.frame with packages to install (see vignette for details)

Value

no output

Examples

```
Not run:
to_install <- tibble::tibble(package=c("tidyverse","ochRe","customthemes"), source=c("CRAN","Github","r-universe"), url=c("","ropenscilabs/ochRe","https://carlosyanez.r-universe.dev"))

just.install::justinstall(to_install)

End(Not run)
```

Index